Prepare and file your federal and state tax returns electronically.

Do It Yourself!

- Get the tax preparation software:

Go online to use web-based tax preparation software.

Or you may buy it from a retail establishment.

Some online software is free to use and to e-file.

For more information, go to our website at www.ftb.ca.gov and check out the list of e-file providers accepted by the Franchise Tax Board (FTB).

- Keep your data secure:

First, you must use a pre-assigned customer service number (CSN) to identify yourself. The CSN is inside the label holder on the front of this booklet. If you lose your CSN, go to our website or call (800) 338-0505. Second, California law prohibits disclosure of your tax information except as specifically authorized by statute.

You can file online 24 hours a day, seven days a week beginning January 12, 2001. You can request direct deposit and have your refund deposited to your account 5-7 days after you file.

Or, if you owe, you can request electronic debit from your account on a date you choose.

Ready to join millions of Californians and e-file?

Great! Go to www.ftb.ca.gov or ask your tax preparer to e-file your return for you.

Filing Status Check List

General Information

Choose only one filing status. Your filing status for California must be the same as the filing status you used on your federal income tax return.

Exception: Married taxpayers who file a joint federal income tax return may file separate California returns if either spouse was:

- An active member of the U.S. Armed Forces (or any auxiliary military branch) during 2000; or
- A nonresident for the entire year and had no income from California sources during 2000.

If you file a joint return and if either spouse was a nonresident in 2000, you cannot use TeleFile or Form 540 2EZ. You must use Form 540NR, California Nonresident or Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return.

If you are married and file a separate return, you cannot use TeleFile or Form 540 2EZ. Use Form 540A or Form 540. See the back cover for downloading or ordering tax forms.

Single

You are single if any of the following was true on December 31, 2000:

- You were never married; or
- You were legally separated under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance; or
- You were widowed before January 1, 2000, and did not remarry in 2000.

Married Filing Joint

You are married filing joint if any of the following is true:

- You were married as of December 31, 2000, even if you did not live with your spouse at the end of 2000; or
- Your spouse died in 2000 and you did not remarry in 2000; or
- Your spouse died in 2001 before the 2000 return is filed.

A husband and wife may file a joint return even if only one had income or if they did not live together all year. However, both must sign the return.

Head of Household

This filing status is for unmarried individuals who provide a home for certain other persons. You are entitled to use the head of household filing status only if ALL the following apply:

- You were unmarried or considered unmarried on December 31, 2000.
- You paid more than one-half the costs of keeping up a home for the year 2000.
- For more than half the year, your home was the main home for you and another person who lived with you.
- The other person was your qualifying relative.
- You were not a nonresident alien at any time during the year.

For more information, get FTB Pub. 1540, California Head of Household Filing Status Information. See the back cover for downloading or ordering information. Note: At the time this booklet went to press, the Appeal of Helmi Hisserich was pending before the California Board of Equalization (BOE). The BOE's final decision in this matter may revise the definition of a qualifying individual for the Head of Household filing status. For recorded information about the status of this case, please call (800) 338-0505, select personal income tax, then general information, and enter code 214.

Qualifying Widow(er)

You are a qualifying widow(er) if ALL of the following apply:

- Your spouse died in 1998 or 1999, and you did not remarry in 2000, and
- You have a child, adopted child, stepchild, or foster child whom you can claim as a dependent, and
- This child lived in your home for all of 2000. Temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, count as time lived in the home, and
- You paid over half the cost of keeping up your home for this child, and
- You could have filed a joint return with your spouse the year he or she died, even if you actually did not do so.

Please enter the year of your spouse's death on the TeleFile Tax Record (or Form 540 2EZ).

California, where trained volunteers provide free help during the tax filing season to persons who need to file simple federal and state income tax returns.
Many military bases also provide this service for members of the U.S. Armed Forces. From January 2 through April 16, see our website: www.ftb.ca.gov for locations or call (800) 852-5711.

3. When do I have to file?

Your tax return is due on April 16, 2001, but if you can't file by that date you get an automatic, paperless extension to October 15, 2001. Any tax due must be paid by April 16, 2001, to avoid penalties and interest. See form FTB 3519 on page 12. If you make an when you do file your return.

Your Taxes.

(800) 338-0505. See the back cover for more information.

Generally, keep your California income tax records for at least 4 years from the due date of the return or the date the return is filed, whichever is later. However, an extended period may apply for California or federal tax returns related or subject to federal audit.

If you need to amend your return, use Form 540X. Go to www.ftb.ca.gov or see code 908 on the back cover.

9. I will be moving after I file my return. How do I notify the FTB of my new address?

You can notify the FTB of your new address by using form FTB 3533, Change of Address. This form is available on our website as a fillable form, or you may call (800) 852-5711, and select option 5.

After filing a return, you should notify the FTB of a change of address for up to 4 years, especially if you leave the state and no longer have a requirement to file a California return.

10. Can I TeleFile?

You can TeleFile only if we mailed you this booklet with a label holder on the front cover. If we did not mail you this booklet with a label holder, but you filed

Payment Voucher for Automatic Extension for Individuals

Use form FTB 3519 only if:

- You cannot file your 2000 return* by April 16, 2001; and
- You owe tax for 2000.

Use the worksheet below to determine if you owe tax.

- If you do not owe tax, there is nothing to file at this time and no need to complete or mail this voucher. But, you must file your return by October 15, 2001 to avoid a late-filing penalty. See Penalties and Interest for more information.
- If you owe tax, complete the voucher at the bottom of this page. Then mail it and your check or money order to the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) by April 16, 2001, to avoid late-payment penalties. See Penalties and Interest for more information.

Note: You may also pay your tax by credit card. You will be charged a fee for this service. If you pay by credit card, do not mail the payment voucher to the FTB. Call (800) 272-9829 (ext. 1555) or visit the website:

Name and Address. Be sure to fill in your complete name, address, and social security number on the voucher. If you lease a mailbox from a private business rather than from the United States Postal Service, enter your mailbox number in the field labeled "PMB no."

Remember, an extension of time to file your return is not an extension of time to pay your tax. If you fail to pay your total tax liability by April 16, 2001, a late-payment penalty plus interest will be added to your tax due. If after April 16, 2001, you find that your estimate of tax due was too low, you should pay the additional tax as soon as possible to avoid further accumulation of penalties and interest. Pay your additional tax with another form FTB 3519 voucher. If you do not file your return by October 15, 2001, you will be assessed a late-filing penalty plus interest from the original due date of the return.

If you are living or traveling outside the United States on April 16, 2001, the deadline to file your return and pay the tax is June 15, 2001. Interest will accrue from the original due date (April 15, 2001) until the date of payment. If you need additional time to file your tax return, you will be allowed an automatic six-month extension without filing a written request. To qualify for the extension, you must file your tax return by December 17, 2001. To avoid any late-payment penalties, you must pay 100% of your tax liability by June 15, 2001. When filing your return, be sure to attach a statement to the front indicating that you were "abroad on April 16, 2001."

Things you need to know before you complete Form 540 2EZ

Use blue or black ink to complete Form 540 2EZ.

The California 2EZ tables in this booklet are very different from other tables you may have used and do not work for TeleFile or any other California tax forms. There are three separate tables, one for each filing status. The tax amounts have been reduced for the standard deduction for your filing status, your personal exemption credit, and dependent exemption credits to which you are entitled.

Use the label from inside the label holder on the cover of this booklet to speed processing and prevent common errors that can delay refunds. After completing your return, sign it and attach the mailing label. Make corrections to the label by crossing out any errors and printing the correct or missing information in black or blue ink.

Enter your social security number(s) in the space(s) provided. This information is not pre-printed on your label.

Privacy Act Notice

The Information Practices Act of 1977 and the federal Privacy Act require the Franchise Tax Board to tell you why we ask you for information. The Operations and Compliance Branches ask for tax return information to carry out the Personal Income Tax Law of the State of California. We may request additional information if we audit your return or take collection action.

If you meet the income requirements, the Revenue and Taxation Code requires you to file a return on the form we prescribe (Sections 18501 and 18621). When you file this or other documents, you must include your social security number for identification and return processing (Section 18624).

It is mandatory to furnish all information requested when you are required to file any documents prescribed by the Franchise Tax Board. If you do not file a return, or do not provide the information we ask for, or provide fraudulent information, the law states you may be charged penalties and interest and, in certain cases, you may be subject to criminal prosecution. We also may disallow claimed exemptions, exclusions, credits, deductions, or adjustments. This could make the tax higher or delay or reduce any refund.

We may give the information you furnish us to the United States Internal Revenue Service, the proper official of any state imposing an income tax or a tax measured by income, the Multistate Tax Commission, and California government agencies and officials, as provided by law. If you owe any monies, we may disclose the amount due to employers, financial institutions, county recorders, vacation trust funds, process agents, and other payers.
